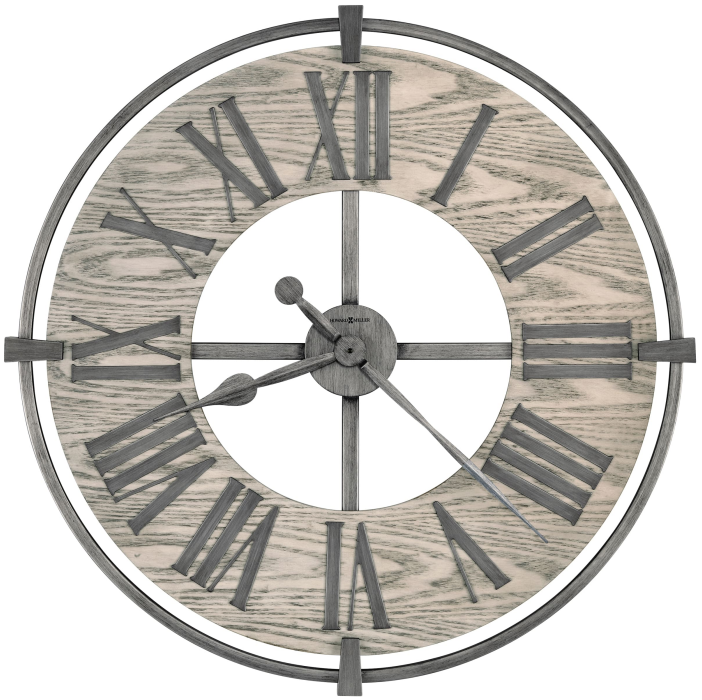
Eli Wall Clock 625646



Aged Iron Wall Clock: With beautiful materials pulling together to create this large wall clock, the Eli makes for a stunning piece. This clock features brushed aged-silver finished wrought iron and a wood veneered numeral ring finished in a warm gray. This iron wall clock has a natural, elemental style.

Simple Time Telling: The applied brushed, aged-silver Roman numerals and hour and minute hands complement the frame, creating a piece that allows you to tell time from across the room with ease. The wooden face acts as just enough of a backdrop to create contrast against the numerals.

Easy Operation: The quartz, battery-operated movement of this iron wall clock requires one AA sized battery (not included). Once a battery is added, the clock operates smoothly and provides long-lasting use.

Large Wall Size: This clock is designed to become a central design piece for any room. When placed on a large, open wall, the clock will take center stage as a decorative touch, pulling together the style of the space.
