

Consumer Responsibilities & Maintenance Guide

Limited 60day Warranty:

-Coverage: This warranty is provided exclusively to the original purchaser for personal household use. For commercial use, further limitations may apply.

-Quality Assurance: Stufurhome products are crafted to be free from material and workmanship defects. Our commitment extends throughout the lifetime of the product from the purchase date under normal usage conditions.

-Warranty Service: During the warranty period, should any defects arise, Stufurhome will repair or replace the defective parts at no charge. Simply return the part to our distribution center, freight prepaid, with the original receipt detailing the purchase date and nature of the issue. Note: Returns shipped without prepaid freight will be declined.

-Limitations: This warranty does not cover damages from abuse, misuse, abnormal use, improper installation, or external repairs. Stufurhome assumes no responsibility for indirect or consequential damages, including labor costs for installation or removal.

-Legal Rights: This warranty provides specific legal protections, and you may also have other rights which vary from state to state.

-Customer Support: For more details on this warranty or if any parts are missing or damaged, please contact our customer service at no charge via email at ybxcalgary178@gmail.com.
