Organic Matter 1

D2794S55874-4698

A companion piece to Organic Matter 2, Organic Matter 1 is in the style of Hilma af Klint, a Swedish painter and mystic, credited with creating some of the earliest known abstract pieces in Western art history. This work emphasizes the concepts of biomorphic form. A pronounced, organically inspired structure dominates the work, creating an illusion of three-dimensionality. The strong contours of the shapes provide a central point of interest, while the muted palette of olive green and rose champagne enhances the perception of depth. Organic Matter 1 embraces a pleasing palette across biomorphic forms in this striking work of art on canvas. A beautiful addition to the carefully curated ART by TA Collection.
