

Oscar Floor Clock 615128

Accent your living space with the Oscar modern grandfather clock. The wooden and metal design has a modern look, while the slender pendulum imparts even more visual interest to this Howard Miller timepiece.

Durable Materials: The wooden column of this modern grandfather clock has a satin ebony finish, which contrasts with the aged silver metal frame. All four corners are equipped with adjustable levelers for stability on carpeting or uneven floors.

Aged Silver Details: The dial has a blackened steel finish, which stands out against the aged silver numeral ring, hands, and bar markers. The combination of black and aged silver is neutral enough to coordinate with almost any interior design style or color palette.

Sleek Pendulum: Another part of this modern grandfather clock with an aged silver finish is the pendulum. It has a slim cylindrical design to enhance the modern appearance of this bold timepiece.

Quartz Movement: Quartz movement requires one AA and two C batteries.
