

Oceana Tabletop Clock 645575

This stunning nautical desk clock by Howard Miller features beautiful materials and a unique design. With a gorgeous octagonal chest and a gimbaled clock, this wood table clock will become a central design piece in any room.

Careful Craftsmanship: This unique table clock is finished in Windsor Cherry on select hardwoods and veneers. The end result is a carefully crafted piece that demonstrates true luxury.

Detailed Design: No detail was left unnoticed in the design of this wood table clock. A polished brass-finished gimbaled captain's clock is housed in a felt-lined octagonal chest. Additionally, a push-button catch will open the lid to reveal the white dial with black Roman numerals and hands with a brass second hand, and glass crystal.

Extra Features: Beyond just the detailed design of this piece, this nautical desk clock features unique extras. A felt bottom protects your desk or tabletop, guarding against any scratches, and an octagon plate for engraving is included.

Quartz Movement: This Howard Miller clock utilizes quartz movement and requires one AA size battery.
