B Install armrests. First screw into the left(or you can start with the right side) armrest about one-third of the depth with a long screw, then insert it into the reserved screw hole on the backrest, and fasten it with a washer and a nut from inside. Same steps for the right armrest.

C Reinforce the steadiness of the almost done loveseat. As shown in the figures: according to the reserved screw holes, firstly fasten the small metal corners with screws, and then use the large metal corners to attach and fasten the armrest, backrest and seat cushion accordingly, tighten all the screws, and then install the supporting legs. At last, install the middle support frame, and seal the sofa bottom with the base cover.
