! Wall Mounting

! Please ensure screws are drilled into Wood Stud.

For better performance and stability, we provide the extra wall anchors to fasten the bed. Place the bunk bed against the wall and mark two points on the wall for late drilling. The holes should be about 0.5 inch from the bar A&C and 0.5-1 inch above the bar O of the upper bed. After drilling the holes at the previously marked locations, insert F1 into the holes.

Tie the bunk bed with F3. Screw F2 through the holes of F3 and then into F1.
In this way, the wall will not crack even after the screws are removed, reducing damage to the wall.
