

Union Depot Gallery Wall Clock 625733

Accent any room with the Union Depot Oversized Wall Clock. This oversized wall clock makes an excellent focal point for the wall, and its aged black dial and antique brass details complement any decor style from traditional to contemporary.

Oversized Style: This antique wall clock is oversized, so it's a great centerpiece for a gallery wall. It has a brass-finish metal frame that's durable and elegant, along with an aged black dial with gold-finish Arabic numerals that are easily visible.

Antique Details: In addition to the aged dial, this brass wall clock has antique brass-finish hour and minute hands. Also finished in antique brass is the metal ring surrounding the peep hole at the 6 position.

Brass-Finish Pendulum: There's also a brass-finish pendulum to enhance the look of this timepiece. It shows through the peep hole and coordinates with the other brass-finish details.

Quartz Movement: This oversized wall clock has quartz movement and requires one AA battery.
