

Stratus Tabletop Clock 645752

Make a subtle statement with this beautifully designed glass Alarm & Table clock. Gentle curves set it apart, beginning with the soft arch at the top. The complementary pair of glass panels along the sides, along with the sturdy tiered base, convey a sense of polished sophistication. The result is a striking timepiece perfect for adding a hint of luxury to the home or workplace.

Glossy Elegance: As a decorative accent and a functional piece, this handsome table clock provides everything that you need to complement traditional, contemporary, and transitional spaces alike. The crisp white dial is an eye-catching element etched with black Roman numerals, along with black hour and minute hands and a silver second hand, plus glossy inserts. A protective glass crystal is supported by a polished silver-tone bezel.

Quartz Movement: Quartz movement requires one AA battery.
