Simplicity in Style: The Lindsay Oversized Wall Clock pairs the perfect amount of simplicity with design to create a stunning iron wall clock. This decorative piece features applied Arabic numerals which offer easy readability and simple style. The singular wrought iron lines make this an understated piece.

Attention to Detail: No detail was left unnoticed in the design of this iron wall clock. Spade-style hands are finished in charcoal gray with silver edging. The entire body of the clock also features the same charcoal gray finish and silver edging, ensuring the piece flows together.

Practical Use: This wall clock features quartz, battery-operated movement requiring one AA sized battery.

Wall Piece: Measuring in at 14 inches in diameter, this wrought iron wall clock is the perfect wall piece. Rather than featuring a white backdrop, the clock has no backing, allowing you to utilize a colorful wall or stone inlay as the perfect background for the piece.
