

PUJA - BROWN

PUJA comes to be the name of a Hindi ritual as a way of showing gratitude to their deity, distinguished people, or special guests. Besides the temples, it is very common practice to see people performing in their homes the same practices as a way to be connected and harmonized to the environment.

Manufactured out of synthetic yarns, the PUJA rugs collection, have a neutral color pallet, and a remarkable tone on tone, that nothing else is but the different tones blend, giving the rug a natural a natural look, as wool itself. A versatile option, with a great cost X benefit ratio and suitable for all ambiances.
