ATTENTION: Do not attach the fourth slat until the Desk has been correctly aligned in the following steps.

12

With the wooden runners in place, slide the 2 plastic sliders to the front of the bunk and attach to the edge of the desk using 4 screws (H). At this point fix the front side of the fourth slat assembly using 2 screws (F), as detailed below.

13

Next push the desk completely underneath the bed and attach the rear end of the fourth slat assembly with the final 2 screws (F). The desk should now move freely in and out on the wooden runners.

14
