Poetta

SJ65605

DESCRIPTION

Graceful and radiant, the Poetta Collection captures the ethereal beauty of feathers unfurled in motion. Speaking to a rare and poetic elegance reflected in every detail, laser-cut, hand-finished metal forms spread outward like gilded plumage, each aperture punctuated with faceted Radiance® Crystals that glimmer like dewdrops on a feather's edge. Light dances across the sculptur surfaces, revealing layers of brilliance and shadow that evoke both strength and delicacy. With its jewelry-inspired refinement and avian grace, Poetta is a luminous expression of Forever by Schonbek's artistry—feminine, fluid, and endlessly enchanting.
