

Seven Seas Wall Clock 625659

Inspired Style: Like a relic discovered in a dusty attic, this oversized wall clock brims with character and old-world charm. Its aged finish alone sets it apart from other timepieces in your home. Little touches transform it from an ordinary clock bearing a vintage aesthetic to something more purposeful and defined. This timepiece fits perfectly at home in your own office or entryway

Nautical Accents: What makes this antique wall clock so magnificent isn't just its commanding size and undeniable presence. It's the intricacy of the detailing. It features a sturdy metal case bearing an antique dusty gray finish and embossed Arabic numerals. Faux hinges and clasps grace the bezel, along with faux bolts on each side that lend an industrial finishing touch.

On the Dial: Complementing this eye-catching feature is an off-white dial that boasts a distinctively antiquated appearance. The nautical wall clock has aged black Arabic numerals and hour markers, a minute track, and an antique dusty gray bezel, along with aged red inner numerals and charcoal gray-finished hour and minute hands. A sleek glass crystal provides superior protection.

Quartz Movement: Quartz movement requires one AA battery.
