

Bailey Tabletop Clock 645443

Impart traditional beauty to your home with the Bailey wooden table clock from Howard Miller. It's enclosed in a rosewood-finished box that coordinates beautifully with almost any interior design style.

Classic Wood Finish: This timepiece has a high-gloss Rosewood Hall finish, which is applied over select hardwoods and veneers for durability and an elegant look. This table clock is a good size for a side table or desk.

Refined Details: The brass-finish feet, push-button catch, and angle adjustment knobs serve as functional accents for this table clock, which has a gimbale white dial that tilts for precise positioning. The black hands and numerals stand out against the dial, which is encased in protective glass crystal.

Great as a Gift: Present this timepiece to the newlywed couple or give it as an anniversary gift. It also makes a good gift for housewarming celebrations and holidays.

Quartz Movement: This wooden table clock has a battery-operated quartz movement.
