Bean Bag

This bean bag chair is filled with crushed polyurethane foam. Products are vacuum compressed and hermetically sealed for transportation. A slight natural raw material odor may be detected when you first open the package. This phenomenon is normal and harmless. Please remove all packaging and ventilate for 24–72 hours; the odor will fade gradually.

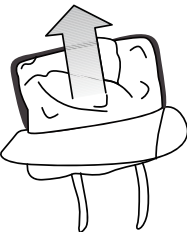

The item is compressed for shipping. Allow 48 hours for full shape recovery. Kindly note it cannot be easily repacked into the original box after opening. Please contact us anytime if you have issues during purchase or use, we will offer timely support.
