ENERGETIC MOTIFS ADD TEXTURE AND DIMENSION

Pattern is an intrinsic and defining element of fine interior design. Done well, it creates drama, energy, texture, depth, and dimension. The Paula Purroy Talia Cala Terracotta 5x5 Matte Ceramic Tile adds all that to a space, and more. Its delicate, symmetrical motif and clay-like hue—as well as its uncanny resemblance to the traditional Zellige—give it universal appeal as well as a distinctive look of its own.

OLD-WORLD CHARM MEETS MODERN SOPHISTICATION

Talia is a signature Designer Collection by artist and creative TileBar collaborator, Paula Purroy. Featuring a warm palette and an array of patterns and solids, the ceramic and porcelain collection showcases Purroy’s unique ability to blend the traditional and the modern. This is a top-tier suite of sustainable tiles made in Spain. Talia features a glazed, matte finish and distinctive surface features, including color variation and in some cases, real gold appliques.

FROM SPANISH DESIGNER PAULA PURROY

Barcelona-born artist, architect, landscape architect, and global traveler, Paula Purroy is inspired by nature in all its variety the world over. She has translated that inspiration into art forms that range from sculpture to painting to dancing. Purroy’s considerable talents are evidenced in Talia, this richly patterned collection designed for TileBar. Talia’s many patterns call to mind both Baroque and modern styles, revealing Purroy’s old soul and trend-forward aesthetic.
