

Chesney Wall Clock 625719

Maritime Style: A true work of art, this metal wall clock captures a certain maritime effect. The oversized accessory is designed to replicate a porthole, yet its down-to-earth aesthetic and versatile colors make it a worthy addition to both nautical-themed and classic spaces alike. Aged effects and artisan-style workmanship make it a true statement piece fit for the ages.

Attention to Detail: Exquisite detailing sets this unique and generously sized timepiece apart from others in its category. The large wall clock evokes an old-world sense of style thanks to its distressed, silver-finished frame. It encircles an off-white dial that feels decidedly antiquated, thanks to the addition of aged black Roman numerals with charcoal gray outlining, along with a matching black minute track, black minute and hour hands, and a silver-finished bezel that boasts an archaic effect. Flat glass crystal safeguards the face.

Quartz Movement: The quartz, battery-operated movement requires 1 AA battery.
