by Buoninfante

This mattress has been tightly compressed and vacuum sealed to minimize its carbon footprint as it made its way to you.

Remove from packaging within 72 hours of receipt, taking extra care when cutting free from bindings to not cut into the mattress.

Allow for up to 72 hours for your new mattress to decompress and expand fully, however feel free to use it in the meantime.

Don't worry if your new mattress has an odor upon opening. This is perfectly normal after being sealed in a plastic bag. The odor will dissipate with time.
