ROOK SMALL PENDANT

45101

Dia: 24.00 IN

Natural

Contract Suitable As Is

This pendant is a great example of how concentric circles can influence product design. These hand-carved undulating wood circles are arranged to create a contemporary open sphere finished in a gray-wash. While appearing to float around the single light, these hoops are secured with filament wire. This is a natural element in a beach house. Shown with a nostalgic thread bulb. Additional chain available CHN-101.
