

Electric Fireplace

Description

Electric fireplace with 48" x 27" Black Steel Surround & overlay

Offering contemporary elegance in design, this Flame's Flush Mount electric fireplace delivers that special something for any room in your home.

The life-like 'gradient' flame dances and comes alive on a bed of Himalayan crystals or Sable fire glass, all behind a steel surround and overlay that offers added dimension and an artistic element.

Enjoy the benefits of the remote temperature maintenance control to keep your space warm and cozy. This series is perfect for zone heating and can warm a space between 400 and 500 sq ft.

For further customizing of your series electric fireplace unit, create your own look by selecting a custom finish overlay.
