

Nashua Floor Clock 615005

Accent your living room with the Nashua black grandfather clock. This timepiece has the look of a Mora clock, with antique brass-finish details including a pendulum and Heirloom Nameplate.

Hardwood Construction: This Mora-style clock is crafted from select hardwoods and veneers. It has a Worn Black finish for the look of a well-loved heirloom, along with an antique brass pendulum that's visible through a glass-covered cutout on the front door.

Antique Detailing: Worn black Arabic numerals and black spade hands stand out against the aged white dial. Turned bun feet on the sculpted base further enhance the elegant look of this statement timepiece.

Adjustable Chimes: This black grandfather clock plays your choice of Ave Maria or Westminster chimes with a strike on each hour. They can also be set to play every quarter-hour. Volume control, an automatic nighttime volume reduction, and an automatic nighttime shutoff feature let you customize the sound to your liking.

Heirloom Quality: An Heirloom Record Document and brass-finish capsule come with this black floor clock, which also has a brass-finish Heirloom Nameplate that's engravable with your name and special date.

Quartz Movement: This black grandfather clock has a quartz movement and requires two C and two D sized batteries.
