

THEODORE ALEXANDER

Lavinia's Armchair

AL41019.1ABM

An ebonised and parcel gilt open armchair, the overscrolled back centred by a painted rectangular panel, with a caned and cushion seat, the cushions in blue silk hand-embroidered with coronets, on a Greek key seat rail and on ring turned tapering . The original Regency, circa 1820.

- ▶ Shown in fabric Umber-UP0176A
- ▶ Trim: Welting

W 23½ x D 24½ x H 36 inches

Material(s): Acacia, Cane

Collection: Althorp Living History

Style: Classic / Formal Traditional

Type: Dining Room / Dining Chairs

Seat height: 17 inches

Arm height: 26 inches