Follow Me

- FIRST: Check that the assembled product size will fit in its required location. Take into account ceiling height clearance & door frame widths, if the unit is not being assembled close to its final location
- SECOND : Check that you have enough floor area to complete the assembly
- THIRD: Retain your packaging until you have checked that ALL the parts are in the packs.
- FOURTH : Sort out the parts and fittings as shown, assemble product step by step
- It is preferable to rest the product on a soft surface to avoid damage during assembly
- Do not over tighten screws and fittings.
- Re-Tighten all screws and fitting periodically.

For Domestic Use Only

If the room you plan to use your new bed in has a laminate or wood floor, we highly recommend you purchase some anti-skid pads to fit to the underside of the feet of the bed. Floors of this nature offer no grip, which over a small period of time can result in the bed fittings & components coming lose or breaking altogether due to them slowly slipping on the floor. These grips will also protect your floor from any marking that may be caused by your furniture slipping in this manner. These pads can be bought from most good DIY shops or superstores and are relatively inexpensive.
