Bold Accents: Nothing speaks to your penchant for high style better than this oversized wall clock. Featuring a distinctive design that's second only to its sizable structure, it stands out in any transitional or contemporary space. Brass punctuated by pops of red and a striking industrial look lends it a unique, forward-thinking appearance perfect for your entryway, bedroom, office, or living room.

Meticulous Design: It's the details that set this metal wall clock apart. Take in the fixed inner gears finished in antique brass and accented by red centers dusted in black. Both the top and bottom gears feature mobile seconds hands finished in antique brass. Surrounding the inner gears is a rich gray frame made up of inner and outer rings. Together they support applied antique gold-finished Roman numerals, while the warm gray hour and minute hands complement the design.

Easy Assembly: A steampunk wall clock like this is a standout—and it's also incredibly easy to assemble. It arrives in three sections that are simple to arrange.

Quartz Movement: Quartz movement requires three AAA batteries.
