

Doormat Care Info

Keep your doormat in a sheltered area out of direct sun, rain and snow. Shedding is normal during the initial months and will subside over time.

Do not place in area where it will remain wet for a long period of time.

Easy to maintain; gently sweep or vacuum.

If your doormat gets wet, dry in direct sunlight.
If your doormat gets partially wet, hose the entire mat with water and dry in direct sunlight.