

Mill Shop Wall Clock 625723

Sure to steal the spotlight in any room, this oversized wall clock exudes drama and character from every angle. Like an industrial fan bearing an old-world finish, this unique showpiece fits neatly into any setting, be it the entryway to the home or the lobby in the office building. Sleek elements and exceptional artisanship contribute to its unparalleled style, making it the perfect finishing touch for your space.

Metallic Moments: A little rustic and a touch futuristic, this eye-catching clock is a standout thanks to its clever use of materials. It features an aged silver-finished wrought iron frame, which nicely complements the aged galvanized steel fan blades. The edges are purposefully rusted over to convey a vintage aesthetic, while the center disc and metal Roman numerals, share the same reddish-brown finish. The hour and minute hands are equally dark, creating a cohesive look that complements the rustic design perfectly.

Quartz Movement: Quartz movement requires one AA battery.
