Dreaming of Warmer Days 1

D1553S31045-2632

Dreaming of Warmer Days is an accomplished work reminiscent of the art of Swiss-German artist Paul Klee. The foundation of this work is an underlay of implied lines that form an architectural grid. Texture is brought forward by small marks applied within the grid. A dream-like dimension is achieved by a pale color wash in rose quartz, ecru, sky blue, and cream.

Delicate geometric forms invite the viewer to reflect through an abstract window of muted tones and a translucent overlay. Part of the carefully curated ART by TA collection, Dreaming of Warmer Days works as a beautiful complement to Lets Explore.
