

Milan Tabletop Clock 645768

The subtle sophistication offered by this contemporary table clock is undeniable. Composed of contrasting elements that define style with an updated edge, it's fitting for any traditional, transitional, or modern space thanks to its thoughtfully imagined and beautifully curated design.

Versatile Timepiece: It's the rare clock that offers hints of both classic and avant-garde appeal. Yet this masterfully conceived timepiece is undeniably versatile thanks to its combination of polished, chrome-plated metal coupled with inset sides made with genuine walnut veneer and a polished, chrome-plated base. The arched silhouette commands attention, while the sleek white dial in the center is housed within the clear acrylic panel. It's etched with modern black bar-style hour markers, along with black minute and hour hands. Around it is a polished, chrome-finished bezel.

Quartz Movement: Quartz movement requires one AA battery.
