

Felipe Wall Clock 625674

Depth of Character: It's the impressive piece of home décor that doubles as wall art. This can easily be said of this sizable iron wall clock. Made with the sturdiest of materials and built to last, it's a nonconformist statement accessory — something that's rich and enduring, with warm hues that blend beautifully into any environment, yet also something that's unique and avant-garde, with a style that promises to captivate for decades to come.

Designed for the Ages: Style and functionality go hand in hand on this large wall clock. It's the small details that contribute to its impressive appearance, not just in scale, but in character, too. Striking Arabic numerals are proportionate to the size of the piece, each finished in distinctive, dark charcoal gray tinged with silver edging. The matching minute and hour hands complement the color scheme.

Quartz Movement: The quartz, battery-operated movement requires 1 AA battery (not included).
