

TUSCANY BACKLESS BENCH

Our Tuscany collection is made from solid, distressed teak wood. Knots, checking, and other imperfections give each piece its own unique character - no two items are exactly alike. Two finishing options are available: Rustic (no finish) or Gray (hand-applied factory finish). When exposed to the elements, items in the Rustic finish will form a beautiful gray patina. Pieces in the Gray finish are recommended for outdoor covered use. If left uncovered, the finish on the wood will wear away. Once the gray finish has worn off, exposing unfinished teak to the elements, the wood will begin to acquire the gray patina that is typical of untreated teak.
