This distinctive design adds timeless character to any space thanks to its traditional-meets-contemporary design. The Hampton Cherry finish is versatile enough to fit beautifully into any room.

On Display: It's easy to display everything from sculptures to trinkets to books thanks to this clock's trio of adjustable glass shelves. Each is supported with pad-lock metal shelf clips to ensure reliable stability. The fixed wood base shelf provides additional space for anything you want to display.

Timed to Perfection: It's the little details that set this lovely grandfather clock apart. It has a flat top pediment, along with a base bearing a decorative cutout. The corner spandrels are finished in two-tone gold and black. The hinged top door opens easily, allowing for simple access. Adjustable levels are included for stability on any surface. The case has an interior light, allowing for easy viewing in any light.
