PLAN AHEAD

1. Site Selection

- Avoid overhanging trees as much as possible, as fallen leaves will require frequent cleaning, and broken branches may pose a hazard.
- Nearby small trees, bushes, or fences can act as effective windbreaks.
- Do not attempt assembly on days with strong winds or low temperatures.

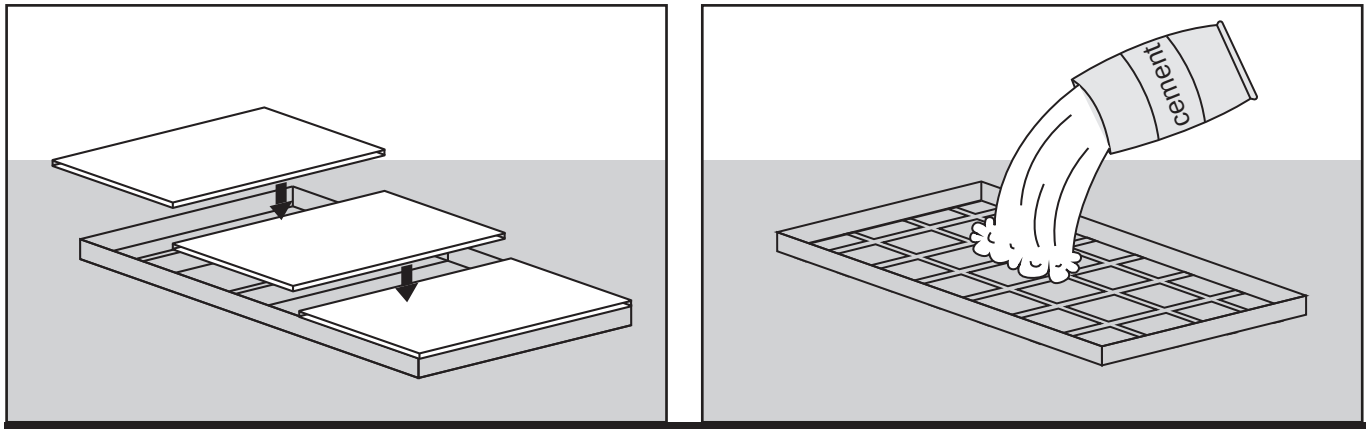

2. Site Preparation

- Ensure the site is prepared with a level base for the shed;
  Using a spirit level is recommended.

Level the ground surface.

- Bases can also be built with bricks, or mounted on a concrete pad to keep moisture out of the shed. Cement the bricks to solid, level concrete footings, then drill and fasten the shed frame securely to the base.

Recommendation: Construct a wooden or r concrete base as a foundation.

- Allow sufficient time for the concrete or cement to dry completely before assembling the shed on top.

CAUTION

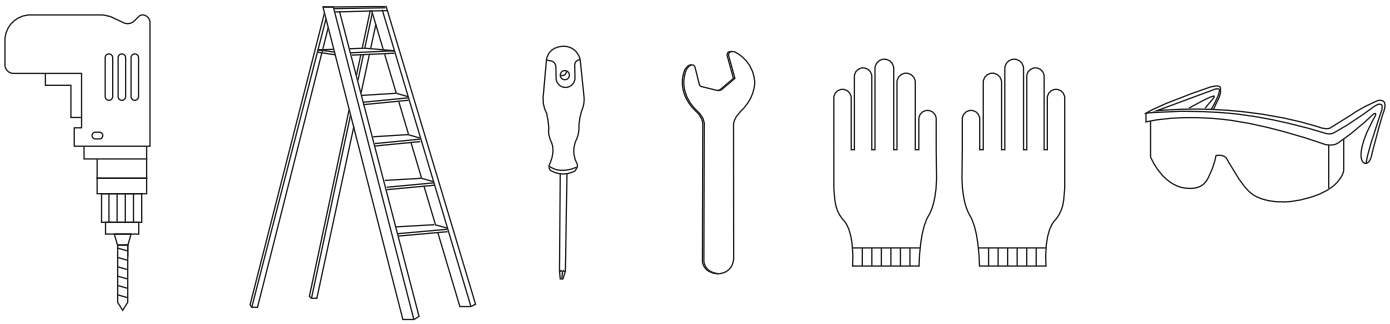

NOTICE:If there is slight bending on the corners,

1. Pls wear gloves and stretch the corners slightly until they are flat.
2. Then the sheets will be normal and there is no effection to the assembling.
