Adorn your desk with the Paragon modern desk clock from Howard Miller. This unique table clock is made from beveled glass crystal with a black dial to impart elegance to your space.

Optical Glass Crystal: The body of this table clock is crafted from glass crystal for a sophisticated style. Beveling and tapered sides impart a sculptural look to this timepiece, which is compact enough to fit on any shelf, table, or desktop.

Silver-tone Details: This crystal table clock has a black dial with a silver-tone dot to mark the 12 for a sleek, modern look. Silver-finish hands and a silver-finish bezel provide a striking contrast, and a glass crystal covers the dial to keep dust at bay.

Makes a Great Gift: Give this unique table clock as a gift for holidays, birthdays, or other special occasions. It comes in a black gift box, so it's ready for presentation.

Quartz Movement: Quartz movement requires one SR626SW battery.
