Varying Fortunes 1

D1487S29734-2556

Varying Fortunes, reminiscent of the work of Cy Twombly in the mid-50s, features hand-drawn chalk-like scribbles and rhythmic paint strokes that provide a sense of movement. The work on canvas employs a limited palette of faint lilac and pewter with dashes of pale yellow, chestnut, and vanilla.

In Varying Fortunes, a once light palette shifts to moodier tones as the narrative transitions from the tranquility of High Water to one of mercurial favor. An original work of art on canvas for the exclusive ART by TA collection.
