Contract Recommendations: Adding a lacquer coating provides additional protection

The Willis desk is designed in an elegant arrangement of tonal materials. The writing desk is crafted in smoke beechwood, with tapered legs and a bullnose edge. Stitched vanilla leather covers the desk's surface and its single, suede-lined drawer, and embellishes the top of each leg. The mixed-media desk is accented with antique brass inlays, sabots, and linear hardware. The piece is finished on the back, allowing it to float in a space. Finish will vary.
