Warranty

The seating group was produced with great care and under constant control. You get a one-year warranty on the seating group from the date of purchase. Please keep the receipt. The guarantee does not apply in the event of inadequate or even neglected maintenance and / or incorrect operation of the seating group. Furthermore, the warranty does not apply to wear parts (such as cushions or similar) and signs of wear (such as color changes or scratches on the plate).

The manufacturer reserves the right to make changes to the design without restricting the technical properties and performance of the seating group. The manufacturer is not responsible for changes that the user makes to the seating group.

If you have any complaints, please contact the manufacturer. The warranty period is not extended by any repairs due to the statutory warranty or goodwill. This also applies to replaced and repaired parts. After the warranty has expired, repairs are chargeable.

Please note that

- We generally accept no liability for damage caused by improper use of the seating group. Correct use of the seating group is the sole responsibility of the user.
- The seating group is only intended for private use and must never be used commercially.
- Violations, changes to the seating group or the use of parts that have not been tested and approved by the manufacturer can result in unpredictable damage. These are therefore outside the legal guarantee.
- Defects and / or damage to the seating group must be reported to the manufacturer immediately, but no later than seven days after the date of purchase.
- Color fading is normal and is not a reason for complaint.
- Damages caused by improper use (such as rain, storms, exceeding the specified load capacity, etc.) are never regulated. The manufacturer reserves the right to charge any costs such as working hours, freight / transport costs, packaging costs or the like for complaints to the buyer that cannot be complained about. Before submitting a complaint, please clarify with the manufacturer whether there is a warranty claim in order to avoid any costs.
