Compliance Certification Form for Chemicals of High Concern
(Interactive Form)

Background information:

The state laws of Maine, New York, Oregon, Vermont, and Washington require suppliers of children's products to report if their products contain certain chemicals of concern beyond a specified limit.

Please note that the states adopt different terminology in describing the reportable chemicals. Walmart uses the term "CHCC" or "reportable chemicals" as a generic term to describe all such chemicals regardless of state terminology.

Does your product contain a reportable chemical for Maine, New York, Oregon, Vermont, and Washington?
