

Transparent product use protection instructions

1. Do not place the packing box upside down or sideways during transportation to prevent scratches on the outer surface of the product.
2. Remove the outer packing carefully according to the instructions for unpacking to avoid rubbing the surface of the product
3. Avoid scratches and bumps during the process of moving the product to prevent scratches and breakage on the surface of the product.
4. Avoid heavy objects or sharp objects from impacting the surface of the product.
5. Avoid contact with strong chemicals such as paint remover, stove oil remover and any cleaning agent containing methylene chloride to prevent strong chemicals from corroding the product.
6. The stains on the surface of the product are rinsed with soapy water or water, and dried with a soft clean cloth.
7. Do not wipe the product with scouring pad or rough cloth to avoid scratching the surface of the product and affecting the appearance of the product.