

Envision Tabletop Clock 645751

Brushed Aluminum: Envision is a hinged, brushed aluminum tabletop clock. This metal table clock is designed with premium materials and a unique design featuring both a traditional clock face and a frame for a small photo. This is the perfect tabletop clock to adorn any small space.

Picture Frame Built-in: This metal table clock features a picture frame that holds a 3.5 inch by 3-inch photo. This makes this piece the perfect choice for adding both practical use and decorative design to your home or office.

Black, White, and Crystal: This unique picture frame clock combination comes equipped with a white dial and contemporary black Arabic numerals with hour markers. Black hour and minute hands pair with the glass crystal to create a sleek look to this metal table clock.

Trusted Operation: Known for its reliable operation, this clock features quartz, battery-operated movement and requires one AA sized battery.

Decor Meets Practical: There is no doubt this metal table clock complete with a picture frame is designed to be a decorative piece. However, the easy to read numbers and stark black and white clock face make this as practical as it is beautiful.
