

DAWSON SCULPTURE

Sweeping curves reflect the volatile and peaceful movements of oceanic currents in this orb-like structure. Its abstract open-form profile is constructed of ricestone in a charcoal finish that is reminiscent of lava stone. A thin antique brass embellishments that trace part of its silhouette. Showcase on a console or étagère and let this sculpture be a representation of what's to come.

CONTRACT: Contract Suitable As Is

9237

Charcoal

H: 13 IN

Dia: 11.50 IN

