

STICKLEY®

Surrey Hills Three-Drawer Chest

The Three-Drawer Chest is a flexible piece, equally at home in the bedroom or in an entry or hallway greeting visitors. A case of quartersawn white oak holds three side-hung, center-guided drawers with tapered satin brass knobs in two sizes. The top drawer features our fretwork motif with a back panel and a continuous vine pattern cut from square to square. Stepped stiles around each square and drawer face add definition and depth, and the legs end in low satin brass ferrules.
