Sofa Leg Installation Completion Diagram

The installation steps for the other sofa leg are the same as above.

After installing the sofa legs, first fold up the main body to install the sofa backrest.

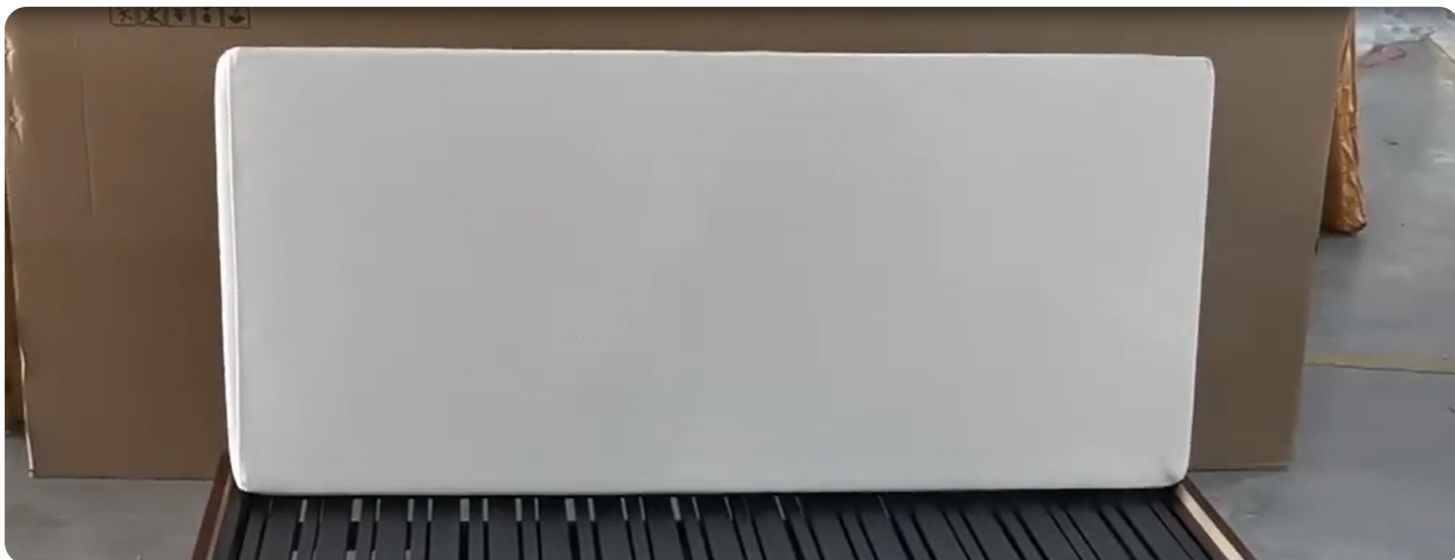

Fold it to the position as shown in the figure.

The backrest is inserted and installed at the rear of the main frame in the form of a pin.

After inserting the backrest, press it firmly to secure it in place.

The separate cushion is the backrest cushion. Just place the cushion on the backrest.

The two cushions that are connected together are the seat cushions.
