Where space is at a premium, the sliding doors of this reclaimed pine cabinet allow it to be useful on a smaller footprint, while the three fully adjustable upper shelves allow it to hold and display your pieces to their best advantage. There is a shelf within the lower cabinet, providing additional ample storage. The soft natural finish of the exterior is gently highlighted by the creamy interior and dark bronze hardware. This beauty is lovely on it's own, but would be great as a pair in either a home office or dining room!
