Surrey Hills Gathering Island

Surrey Hills offers its own version of Stickley's patented Gathering Island, beautifully crafted from quartersawn white oak. Hexagonal legs support a two-tiered tabletop whose lower surface aligns with the back of a sofa, providing a handy space for drinks or snacks. The upper surface, raised for an unobstructed view of a TV screen, can also serve as an open workspace; a slot allows for wire management for laptops and monitors. The Gathering Island pairs perfectly with Mission stools like the Backless Counter Stool.
