

Endeavor Tabletop Clock 645743

Even the smallest accessories have the potential to make a statement. That's the beauty of this eye-catching hardwood table clock. The compact black piece is subtle, yet striking thanks to its clean lines and classy appearance. Carry it everywhere you go to always bring a touch of sophistication along.

Practical Perfection: Sized just right for transport and easy to carry thanks to its folding structure, this hinged table clock offers practicality and style in one sleek package. The black piano finish alone captures attention, while the combination of the hinged clock and compass is simply practical.

Little Details: The glossy black finish alone captures attention, while the crisp white dial provides the perfect contrast. It's designed with black bar hour markers and Roman numerals at the 12, 3, 6, and 9 positions, along with an inner minute track. Trimmed with polished silver-tone bezel, the clock has black hour and minute hands, plus a second hand in silver, all housed behind a glass crystal. The complementary compass has decorative black compass rose graphics.

Quartz Movement: Quartz movement requires one LR44 battery.
