

Each piece of the sectional will have either a male or a female connector attached to the bottom. You pick up the sectional piece with the male connector and align it with the sectional piece with the female connector. Once in place lower the male connector into the female connector in order for the connectors to lock into position. To disconnect follow the same procedure but in reverse. Lift the sectional piece with the male connector to unlock the 2 pieces.