

Forest Oversized Gallery Wall Clock 625766

This oversized gallery wall clock's prominent features are the natural wood finish background, extra-large Roman numerals, and the unique arrangement of gears in the center of the clock that are suspended in a central opening. This clock is perfect for those hoping to add warmth to their space with a unique and highly versatile piece.

Clock Design: This large, 24" wall clock with an open center is finished in a natural aged brown and grooved for a planked appearance. Inside the center opening is a variety of moving charcoal and antique brass finished gears in different sizes and colors.

Dial Design: The dial includes applied charcoal finished Roman numerals with a black, spade-shaped hour and minute hands. For every hour, there is charcoal finished circular dot located near the central opening of the clock that makes it easier to tell the exact time.

Movement: This wall clock has a battery-powered quartz movement which requires one AA battery and one D-sized battery (not included).
