Troubleshooting

Problem	Possible Cause	Solution
The umbrella can't close.	The top of the umbrella is in a tilted position.	Adjust the umbrella top to the upright position and then close the umbrella.
The crank does not click and the canopy does not move up when turning the crank handle in the open direction.	The rope is loose and needs to be wound around the crankshaft and stretched.	Keep turning the crank handle in the open direction several turns to wind and stretch the rope until the canopy moves up.
The crank becomes too hard to work.	The rope has come off the pulley.	Slack the rope and put it back onto the pulley.
