

Crystal lamp with bead pattern

Model specifications: $600*H530mm E12*4

Installation Steps

Installation Diagram

Refer to the installation diagram and hang the crystals in sequence

|   | Crystal String Method                                         | Number of strings |
|---|---------------------------------------------------------------|-------------------|
| A | A: 14 # octagonal beads * 1 piece+63 # pear beads -16 strings | 17                |
| B | B: 14 # octagonal beads * 4 pieces+63 # pear beads -4 strings | 4                 |
| C |                                                               |                   |
| D |                                                               |                   |
| E |                                                               |                   |
| F |                                                               |                   |
| G |                                                               |                   |
| H |                                                               |                   |
| I |                                                               |                   |

- 1: This lamp is suitable for a 110V power supply, 50Hz, and the bulb power is less than 60%.
- 2: Please wear gloves during installation
- 3: Please do not install it on the ceiling that is dry with gray water
- 4: When cleaning, please turn off the power first and use a non-corrosive cleaning agent
- 5: Luminaires should be installed by professional water electronics
- 6: Customers must install according to the installation instructions, otherwise they will bear the consequences themselves